NUMBER 121.

THE CYCLONE'S PATH

It Was Across Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

EVERYTHING SWEEPED BEFORE IT.

Many People Killed and Injured—Entire Villages Wiped Out of Existence—The Heavy Rain That Accompanied the Storm Causes Great Flood Damages.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The details of the havoc wrought by wind, hail and rain throughout the west Tuesday and Tuesday night, are yet very meager. Wires are still down in Kansas, but it is known that the damage in the southern part of the state is greater than in the north.

Many houses were destroyed at Wilbur, Linn county, among them being the depot. Several persons are reported injured.

The town of Parker, in the same county, was also partially destroyed.

A portion of the city of Parsons lay in the track of the storm and much damage to property is reported. Hail accompanied the wind, and so fierce was its fall that windows were shattered and fruit trees damaged.

At Garnett the house of Walter Hawley and Henry Dykes were completely demolished. The wind came from every direction and formed a column of sand extending several hundred feet in the air.

In Missonri, Parker, a hamlet 10 miles west of Independence, was almost destroyed. Many houses were completely leveled. The loss of life is believed to be great.

At Mayview, several houses were blown down and it is believed several people were killed.

A cyclone swept the country northwest of Stanberry Tuesday night. The path of the cyclone was two miles wide. Four farmhouses were leveled and other damage done. Several people were killed, among them Mrs. Ward. Her husband and John Shelton were fatally injured. An unknown woman was also crushed to death. Most of the people saw the cyclone coming in time to get into their cyclone cellars. The loss will aggregate thousands of dollars.

In Illinois a terrific wind, rain and hailstorm passed over Rockford at 1 o'clock in the morning, doing much damage in that vicinity. It verged close on a cyclone, breaking windows, tearing up trees, and turning over barns and small buildings.

At Jacksonville all the streams in the whole vicinity are out of their banks and bridges are washed away, while fences are floating down stream in confusion. Trees and buildings have also suffered, and a good many cattle were killed by lightning.

In Indiana a terrific windstorm passed over Terre Haute at 3 o'clock in the morning, and did many thousand dollars' worth of damage in the city and vicinity. Twenty iron columns of the Vandalia trainshed were blown down and the stone foundation uprooted. The iron was badly twisted, and the damage will amount to $30,000. The entire roof of the Park iron foundry was blown off, and many trees, fences and sheds blown down. Railroad telegraph wires were so badly damaged that communication was cut off almost entirely for several hours.

At Kokomo at 4 o'clock in the morning the machinery and boilerroom of the American strawboard mills were demolished and Robert Douglass, an employe, was crushed to death in the debris. Other workmen had narrow escapes. The building is almost a complete wreck. The storm moved to the northwest, uprooting trees and doing great damage to property.

At Jeffersonville, heavy rains caused serious washouts on the Jeffersonville and Indianapolis railroad.

Texas Gets Her Share.

ALBANY, Tex., April 13.—A terrific wind and hailstorm swept over western Texas Tuesday evening, traveling directly down the valley and laying waste everything in its path. Whole farms, orchards and small grain crops were completely ruined; not a window pane in the storm's track is left. Granaries, barns, windmills and fences were destroyed. Albany escaped with but slight damage. Many cattle were killed, but no human fatalities are reported.

Only Two Houses Left Standing.

NEW ORLEANS, April 13.—The Times Democrat's Vicksburg (Miss.) special last night said: Conductor Thomas of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad wires here: The entire town of Robinsonville, Coahoma county, was swept away by a cyclone this afternoon. All the stores are in flames. Several negroes and perhaps some whites are buried in the ruins. The depot was completely destroyed and the night operator's wife killed. A colored child was also killed. Only two houses are left standing.

ANOTHER CYCLONE.

A Mississippi Town Wiped Entirely Out of Existence.

MEMPHIS, April 13.—Another terrible cyclone, supported by the auxiliary wrath of the flames, has destroyed a Mississippi town, and charred corpses, to the number of five or more, are lying beneath the general wreckage.

Robinsonville, a town of several hundred inhabitants, 20 miles south of Memphis on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road, is the scene of this second disaster, which follows so close upon Kelly's destruction. Again from the southwest came the whirling winds, bundled fretfully into a cone that mows down houses and stanneh buildings.

It was 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening when the storm came on. Little showers had come and gone during the day, and there was naught to be reminded of more than a passing April day. When in the evening the clouds began to array themselves thickly about the horizon, the people at Robinsonville went to shelter, and in seeking refuge from a drenching several went to their death.

The depot was the first building in the path of the cyclone, and it was easily crushed. In the upper story of the depot the night operator and his wife lived. She was killed and he was badly injured. The row of stories went down in one fell swoop. Frame buildings were tumbled indiscriminately into one long mound of debris.

The loss of life can only be estimated. It is believed that at least five and perhaps 12 people were burned to death while imprisoned under the debris left by the cyclone.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

A Portion of Ypsilanti, Michigan, Destroyed.

YPSILANTI, April 13.—The business portion of the city was visited at 7:30 last night by a cyclone. For two blocks on Congress street, the principal business street of the city, almost every plateglass window was broken and signs and awnings were totally demolished.

The postoffice and four stores on Huron street were riddled. The roof of the building was blown into the street and several houses opposite were badly damaged by flying debris. The cyclone crossed the city from southwest to northeast. The residence of William Kinsey was blown off its foundation. Curtis' wagon and carriage factory, the business college, Draper Opera House, Hawkins House and several other buildings were demolished.

Crossing the river the wind unroofed the residence of Johnathan Voorhees, on River street, and blew another house off its foundation. Further east Mr. Moore's house and barn were unroofed. The wind lasted 10 minutes, and, although the streets were filled with people only a few minutes before, no serious accident is reported.

As soon as the wind subsided the electric lights were shut off to avoid fire and accidents.

The streets are filled with wreckage, fallen trees and debris of all kinds.

SENSATIONAL ARRESTS.

Clothing Manufacturers Charged With Conspiracy by Employes.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Six members of the Clothing Manufacturers' association were arrested yesterday on a charge of conspiracy preferred by the cutters. They were paroled in custody of counsel for examination next Wednesday.

The first mutual attempt to arrive at an amicable settlement of the locked out cutters by the Manufacturers' association was made last night when a conference of representatives of all the parties concerned was held. The American Federation of Labor was represented by Samuel Gompers, president, James B. Lennon, treasurer, and Christopher Evans, general secretary. The Clothing Manufacturers association was represented by J. L. Hesleberg, H. S. Mendelson, Albert F. Hochstadler, Emanuel Lauer, William Sikes, Otto Sampler, Moses Newberg, L. Sinchheimer, Julius Hammerberg and Marcus M. Marks. Benjamin Zencchi, Henry White and John Zutter represented the cutters and garment workers' union.

Commissioner Edward Feeney was present in behalf of the state board of mediation and arbitration. The conference, after continuing in session over five hours, failed to arrive at any settlement.

At 1:45 this morning General Secretary Echers of the garment workers, said that they were no nearer an agreement than when they began.

Naronic's Insurance Being Paid.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The Atlantic Mutual Insurance company began yesterday to pay the policies on the Naronic's cargo at a small discount. The exact figures are not obtainable, but it is understood that the company suffers a considerable loss. The New York Mutual, so far as known here, is the only other local company holding risks on the Naronic's cargo and they are only to the extent of a few thousand dollars. This company also has begun to discount its policies.

Cheated the Law.

ANDERSON, Ind., April 13.—James McCallister, driver for the American Express company here, embezzled the company to the amount of $1,000. Yesterday afternoon J. P. Clark of Cincinnati, general superintendent, had warrants issued for McCallister's arrest. When the officer came to arrest him he blew out his brains. McCallister was only 18 years of age, and bore a good reputation.

His Smooth Scheme.

COLUMBUS, O., April 13.—A man giving his name as Edward Fulton of Brooklyn is under arrest here for having victimized several ladies out of various sums by promising to teach them the art of clairvoyancy, and then secure for them good positions. A sum of money was, of course, demanded from the ladies in advance.

An Ohio Man Will Get It.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Information from Washington is that J. Q. Smith, radical tariff reformer of Ohio, has been selected as commissioner of internal revenue. Senator Brier's friends here say this is significant so far as Brier's relations with the administration are concerned.

THE MINeworkers.

Second Day's Proceedings of the National Convention.

WRANGLING ALREADY BEGUN.

The Trouble Between President McBride and Michael Ratchford of Massillon Being Aired—An Increase of Wages Will Be Asked For Which Will Affect All the States in the Organization.

COLUMBUS, O., April 13.—The morning session of the Mineworkers' national convention opened yesterday with 152 delegates present and as far as the newspapers were concerned, was a decidedly short one. Under the regular code of business the election of officers was called for. This occasioned some wrangling among the delegates who, it seems, are divided into two factions, one for the purpose of pushing the election of officers as a part of the first chief transactions of the convention, and the other for the purpose of delaying it until the last moment. The latter faction predominated, however, and a motion to make the election of officers the last thing on the order of business carried.

During the discussion occasioned by this motion, Mr. Michael Ratchford of Massillon arose to address the convention, and was peremptorily called down by the chair, who commanded him to resume his seat.

The next order of business was taken up, that of fixing prices for machine and pick mining, and the convention immediately went into executive session to consider it.

Mr. Ratchford a short time ago resigned his office in the organization as a member of the executive board. Bad blood has since existed between President McBride and that gentleman, but not on account of his resignation. It is now understood that Mr. Ratchford's withdrawal as an officer of the body occasioned no regret on the part of the present incumbents. In fact it was readily accepted, and should it not have been tendered there is no doubt but what he would have been requested to vacate.

There are numerous candidates for the various offices, which are regarded as "soft snaps" by the members, and the contest, though conducted quietly, is very earnest.

A resolution was offered by another delegate "to make it compulsory on the part of local orders to subscribe to a certain number of copies of the mineworkers' journal," the official organ of the body. The resolution was intended as a method to build up the list of that journal in West Virginia mining districts, and was opposed bitterly by delegates from that state, and one of their number said "he did not think it was right that miners should be compelled to take a paper they did not want."

"The reason, Mr. President," said the champion of the resolution, "the list is so small in West Virginia, in my estimation, is because the mineworkers in that district can't read." This remark elicited considerable laughter at the expense of the West Virginia delegates, and aroused their ire to considerable extent.

"We can read just as good as you fellows from the north," shouted a West Virginian.

During the executive session considerable time was consumed in hearing reports from delegates from the various states. In every instance the outlook was reported favorable to the interests of the miners. Affairs were reported as especially bright in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

A resolution was adopted to ask an increase in pick and machine mining. For pick mining an increase of 5 cents per ton was decided upon and 4 cents for machine mining. Under the old rates the machine mining was 35 cents per ton with 3 cents added for boring. The new rate contemplated an increase in loading and all work connected therewith. The new rates will affect all the states in the organization.

The afternoon executive session was largely devoted to hearing the grievance between President McBride and Michael Ratchford. Ratchford was formerly a member of the executive committee, and tendered his resignation for certain reasons. Since then he has both privately and publicly charged that President McBride has used his office in the interest of the Democratic party. Last fall the president made speeches in Ohio and West Virginia, but the constitution of the national organization does not prohibit it. In reply to the charges President McBride maintained that it was wrong for him to take sides politically that the same rule should apply to the district presidents and then down the line until the members themselves would be stopped from taking sides with either political party. In this way, he asserted, the organization would lose all influence for bettering their condition.

Lumber Destroyed.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Between 7,000,000 and 8,000,000 feet of lumber in Police Commissioner McClure's and adjoining lumber yards were destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $100,000; sustained by John McClure, F. A. Queen & Company, and George Van Amberg. The origin of the fire is a mystery. Insurance $100,000.

Dropped Dead in a Hotel.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Colonel John H. Sothorn, father-in-law of Representative Barnes Compton and a wealthy and well known Maryland man of ante bellum days, dropped in the lobby of the Ebbitt House yesterday from paralysis and died 10 minutes later. He was said to be the largest Maryland slaveowner before the war.

Andrew Eyfe of Michigan to be surveyor of customs for the port of Grand Rapids.

Postmasters—Indiana, Isaac Holten, Plainfield; Kentucky, George Warren, Hickman.

A number of nominations and promotions in the army were also sent in.

OUR SENATORS.

What They Did at Yesterday's Open and Secret Sessions.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Senator Call of Florida made a speech in the senate yesterday advocating the increase of membership of most of the leading committees. Senator Vance reported from the privileges and elections committee a resolution authorizing it to investigate the Ady Martin election contest from Kansas. After an executive session the senate adjourned.

The nomination of Eckles, the young Illinois lawyer without banking experience who was nominated to be controller of the currency, was confirmed by the senate in executive session without the formality of a rollcall. There were two hours or more spent in discussion of the nomination before confirmation followed. The Republicans, under the lead of Sherman, criticised the wisdom of appointing to this very responsible position a young man who knew nothing of banking affairs. They had nothing to say against the character of the nominee. Several of the Democrats supported by speeches the president's action, and on a rising vote, every Democrat being found in favor of confirmation, the Republicans did not demand a rollcall.

Nothing was said in executive session about the Roach case.

The Democrats in caucus have agreed to oppose an investigation of Senator Roach at this session.

The president expects to nominate the judges of the new district court of appeals tomorrow, thus making possible final adjournment early next week.

Floating Island in Court.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., April 13.—During last week's storm a two-acre strip of land broke away from the main land and floated out into Lake Chautauque. C. D. Clifford moored it in front of his farm. It broke away, and after floating around a few hours Fred A. Bentley got it aground on his place and refused to give it up. Half a dozen people claim the floating island and have taken the case into court. It originally was attached to Charles H. Wicker's land, and he is suing to regain possession of it.

Money and Friend Both Gone.

NEW YORK, April 13.—B. P. Hitchinson, who created a sensation in the Chicago wheat market and was finally broke, has sold his grocery and restaurant at 32 Pearl street for $148 to H. Myer and says he is going back to Chicago. He lost money on his grocery venture and the friends who knew him when he was a millionaire, know him no longer.

Test Case Decided.

BOSTON, April 13.—An important test case was decided yesterday in the municipal court in regard to the law which allows the exhibiting of children on the stage under the age of 15 years. The complainant in the case was Rufus Wade, and it resulted in a signal victory for the defendant, James W. Bingham, the manager of the Lyceum theater.

Next Saturday's Shipment of Gold.

NEW YORK, April 13.—There were rumors on Wall street yesterday that $2,000,000 in gold would be exported Saturday. The bankers who know best say that $1,000,000 of this is almost certain to go, and probably the whole amount.

MINE FIRE QUENCHED

Further Particulars of the Wales Disaster.

THE ENTOMBED MEN ALL DEAD.

Fifty-Three Corpses Have Been Taken From the Pit—Further Search Will Be Necessary to Ascertain the Full Extent of the Calamity—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, April 13.—The latest news from Pont-y-Pridd is to the effect that the fire in the mine where from 150 to 200 miners were imprisoned, was virtually quenched about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fumes of gas were, however, still so noxious as to drive out those who undertook to explore the mine in search of the dead and for the rescue of those who might be living.

At 5 o'clock yesterday evening the pit had become so cool that three exploring parties were able to descend and go some distance in the seams. They found three dead men, but discovered no trace of the main body of miners who were cut off by the flames from escape.

Up to 2 o'clock this morning 53 corpses had been taken from the pit. The searching parties had found no signs that any of the missing miners were still alive.

The bodies of 11 men were found huddled behind a door as if they had sought shelter there from a hurricane of fiery sparks sweeping by. Other bodies were found in the return airways where the victims were caught while probably trying to escape. A doctor, who has examined the bodies, reports that all of the victims died of suffocation. There are no external injuries on the bodies.

Many of the explorers are suffering severely from the effects of the smoke and the deadly gases encountered.

Further search will be necessary to ascertain the full extent of the calamity.

BELGIUM MINERS.

Riot Begun Which Was Only Quelled by Soldiers.

BRUSSELS, April 13.—Three hundred miners, engaged in the strike at Quagnon, in the province of Haynaut, yesterday made an attack upon the sheds at the mouth of the pit and smashed every window in them. There were many men working in the pit who had refused to join the strikers and the mob's efforts were directed against them as much as against the owners of the pit. All sorts of rubbish, old boards, stone and dirt were thrown into the shaft, the intention of the strikers being to imprison the men in the mines. The mob was on the point of attacking another pit, when the gendarmes arrived and attacked them with the flat sides of their swords. The strikers finally dispersed, but further trouble is apprehended.

Great activity is shown among the labor leaders. All their efforts are now directed to bringing about an enormous demonstration against the chamber of deputies for refusing to adopt the bill to establish universal suffrage.

EXPLOSION AND FIRE.

Building Blown Down and a Number of Workmen Killed.

MADRID, April 13.—There was an explosion in the Sala Caladia company's mills in Mataro, yesterday. The roof of the building was blown off and struck the ground more than 100 yards from the foundation. The walls were rent and most of the flooring collapsed. All the men employed by the company were at work when the explosion occurred. Most of them went down in the wreck.

The fire, which broke out immediately after the explosion, was extinguished, and the work of rescue was begun at once. The dead bodies of nine workmen and the manager have been removed from the ruins. Fifty men are trying to recover the rest of the bodies. The number of dead is not yet known.

No Disorder at Hull.

LONDON, April 13.—What little change there is in the strike situation at Hull is in favor of the masters. The shipping federation, which is an organization of ship owners, claims that it controls more than twice the number of nonunion dock laborers necessary for the handling of cargoes. The strikers have made no further attempt to create disorder. They are evidently playing a waiting game.

London Bank Falls.

LONDON, April 13.—The English, Scottish and Australian chartered bank has failed, with liabilities amounting to $30,000,000 or £6,000,000. Any approximate of the assets cannot be given yet. The proprietors' reserve liabilities is $1,500,000. The last balance sheet made public in September, 1892, showed deposits of almost $30,000,000.

Everything Quiet at Antlers.

PARIS, Tex., April 13.—All is quiet at Antlers and Goodland. The United States troops are in camp at the latter place. The militia are there also. A strong effort is being made to prejudice Captain Guthrie of the United States army against Locke and his friends.

Victory For the United States.

PARIS, April 13.—The court of arbitration on the Behring sea has decided not to admit for the present the British supplementary report. This is a victory for the American side of the contention on that question.

Want One Penny More.

QUEENSTOWN, April 13.—All carpenters and joiners of this city have notified their employers that they will demand an increase in their pay of one penny per hour after June 1.

The bulletins are issued from Louisville by Mr. Frank Burke, who is the director in charge. For the week ending April 10, 1893, he says: "The weather conditions since the opening of the present spring have in most respects been favorable to all crops and to progress of farm work of every description. Wheat came through the winter in good shape, there being much less complaint of freezing than was un- anticipated, considering the severe cold weather to which it had been exposed. Fruit trees were also uninjured and never wintered better, though their present advanced state, due to recent favorable conditions, exposes them to the possi- bility of damage from frosts. "The past week was characterized by an abnormally high temperature, a nearly average amount of sunshine and light, well distributed showers. These condi- tions have been highly favorable to all kinds of vegetation, and the season is fully up to, if not ahead, of the average. Farm work of all kinds has progressed under the most auspicious circumstances and reports received from all sections of the State indicate that the outlook is now more promising than for many years at the same time. "The breaking of ground for corn planting is well under way and in some places the crop is already planted. In some sections, particularly in Warren and the adjacent counties, there is some little complaint that the heavy rains have retarded this work. "Tobacco plants are coming up well and are reported to be very plentiful in all the tobacco growing districts of the State. "Oats are coming up very nicely and the present outlook for the crop is ex- cellent. "Garden crops of all kinds are in the ground, under conditions which favor their rapid growth. "Fruit prospects are more promising than for many years. The trees are in full bloom, and barring damage from frost, the crop will certainly be very fine. There is nothing in the present aspect of weather conditions to indicate the proba- bility of frosts within the next three days at least, and as the average date of the last spring frost in Kentucky is about April 10, it will be seen that there need be but little apprehension of injury from this cause. "There is considerable complaint of damage to fences and barns from the high winds which have prevailed for sev- eral days during the past week, but no injury is reported to crops of any kind. "Live stock of all kinds is reported to be in excellent condition. "Wheat, grasses and meadows never looked better at this season, the reports being particularly favorable as to the con- dition of the first named crop." New Goods. Mouldings in new tints, pinks, blues and terra-cottas; musical instruments; and writing papers—"Royal White" and "Prince of Wales." WHAT ONE OF THE MOST PROMINENT EDUCATORS SAYS.
 LEXINGTON, April 12.

G. W. Blatterman, Esq., County Superintendent, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: The "BULLETIN" just received, for which accept thanks. For the sake of the schools of the whole State do not, if it can be prevented, permit the special act to be repealed. Mason's heaven, if it can stand a few years, will leave the whole State. Only a day or two since I prepared an editorial on "Mason's Example," which will appear ere long. With many good wishes, yours sincerely,
 A. L. PETERMAN.

 prominent educators in the State.

A JOIN FOR JIM CORNETT.

Editor Bulletin: It is hard work to knock a boy down and take a paper from him and pay for it too. The Ledger ought to employ Jim Cornett to sell papers on the streets and instruct him to knock every man down that he meets and stuff a paper down his shirt collar and make him pay for it whether he wants it or not.

Systematic Robbery of Farmers.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., April 13.—The farmers in Washington township claim that they are being systematically robbed. A gang of sneak thieves is thought to have headquarters at Cochran.
 From this point the gang operates over a territory covering several miles. It owns two teams. The common belief is that it has an outlet at Dillsboro, a shipping station. Depredations of late have been at wholesale.
 One farmer alone lost 80 chickens in one night.

Big Cave-In on the Lehigh.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., April 13.—A disastrous cave-in occurred yesterday at Burny's Junction, near this city. A large portion of the earth's surface went down, carrying with it the Lehigh

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Naval Rendezvous Hampton Roads.

The Chesapeake and Ohio will sell excursion tickets to Norfolk or Old Point Comfort and return for regular trains leaving Cincinnati April 15, 1893. It was long ago said that the navies of the world could ride in safety in Hampton Roads harbor. The rendezvous, April 17th, will show that this is true, as representative vessels from the greatest nations of the world will meet there and go through many interesting maneuvers. This is something that will only be seen once in a life time. Tickets will be low enough for every one to avail themselves of the opportunity. For further information, apply to C. and O. ticket agents.

A Successful Minister.

The many friends of Rev. S. B. Alderson will learn with pleasure of his successful ministry at Topeka, Kansas. He has been in charge of the First Presbyterian Church for about one year, and during that time there have been one hundred and seventy-five additions to the membership.

His family are all with him, his oldest son Frank having a good position in the passenger department of the Santa Fe road. Mr. Alderson's first charge was in Maysville, where he brought his bride some twenty years since, and no couple ever lived here who enjoyed more universally the esteem of our citizens. When ever heard from they speak in most affectionate terms of their "first church," and their many friends in Maysville.

WHEN you buy anything in the jewelry line you don't want cheap, trashy stuff. It's simply throwing money away to buy anything but the best. You can always find the best at Ballenger's. He sells on a guarantee, and you can always count on getting your money's worth if you deal with him.

A REAL RAJAH WITH US.

The Advance Agent of the Sultan of Johore in New York.

New York, April 13.—Dato Sri Amar D'Raja, a real East Indian rajah, was at the Hotel Victoria Tuesday. He is swarthy, with high cheek bones and keen black eyes, and is the secretary of state for the sultan of Johore, on the Malay peninsula.

With the rajah is Harry W. Lake, a young Englishman, who is being a mining and general engineer, is practically the commissioner of public works for the sultan.

Both gentlemen arrived here on Monday night on the Berlin and will represent Johore at the world's fair, the rajah as commissioner and Mr. Lake as deputy commissioner.

They brought with them six native artisans, who were shivering on Ellis island Tuesday in European attire. These latter will construct a Malay village at the world's fair.

From Singapore, the capital of the sultan's country, the monarch, together with 30 native princes, accompanied the rajah and Mr. Lake as far as Cairo, Egypt. From there the royal party will proceed to Carlsbad, Germany, where the sultan will be joined by Roosevelt Wildman, formerly United States consul at Johore. Then the eastern potentate and his suite and Mr. Wildman will set out for this country, arriving in New York in June.

The sultan is the only ruling monarch who has signified his intention to visit the Columbian exposition in person.

Sultan Abu Bakar rules over a realm in the Malay peninsula, two degrees above the equator. His income is in the neighborhood of $10,000,000 a year and on state occasions he wears diamonds valued at $10,000,000. At other times he dresses in European costume. He is in the midst of an uphill fight in his endeavor to civilize his domain.

"Abu Bakar, the sultan," said Mr. Lake, "is the last representative ruler of an old Malay dynasty. He is the only eastern potentate who has held his nation together under his own rule by his tact and ability and through his adoption of western methods. He has visited England five or six times and has been decorated with the orders of the Bath, St. Michael and St. George, and he has all the highest decorations in Europe. He has only one wife."

"He is ably assisted in ruling his country by my colleague here, the rajah, who lived in England for seven or eight years and can speak better English than most Englishmen."

The rajah and Mr. Lake went to Washington Wednesday to present their credentials to the secretary of state.

"Yes, um; Ben Harrison they call me for short, an 'tain't sitch a bad name after all, is it, mum?"

The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation.
